

FACT FILE:

Clownfish

SCIENTIFIC NAME:

Amphiprion ocellaris

SIZE:

Up to 11cm

WHERE ARE THEY FOUND:

Warm, tropical coral reefs

DIET:

Algae, small invertebrates, plankton

FUN FACT:

Clownfish live inside of sea anemones and are protected by their stinging tentacles. Clownfish are covered in slime that stops them being stung.